An Easter Prayer For Hope

"Then their eyes were opened and they recognised him."
Luke 24:31

All around me Easter is happening. God continues to reveal love, to extend invitations to growth, to offer me hope. Risen One, open our minds and hearts. Let us see and welcome your presence.

When I meet people in whom you are hidden from view, on my Emmaus walk in life, awaken hope in me.

When you surprise me by showing up unexpectedly in what I resist, awaken hope in me.

When I cannot heal the ones I care about or take away their struggles, awaken hope in me.

When the planet's war, terrorism, hunger, violence and disease envelops me with its pain, awaken hope in me.

When my own illusions and expectations keep me from finding you, awaken hope in me.

Risen Presence, stir hope in us when we waver in our belief about the goodness of humanity. Turn our face toward the sunrise of each morning. Assure us that every day brings light after night's heavy darkness. Let it remind us that a fresh beginning continually awaits us.

Open our eyes to recognize signs of your endless love. Draw us close on our own Emmaus roads. When our hearts are disconsolate surprise us with your peace-filled presence. Rekindle our love.

Restore our recognition of your presence abiding in each and every human being. Let us look deeply and find the pure essence of your love abiding in everyone.

Risen One, breathe hope in us. Again and again. Help us keep it alive by how we think, feel, and live.

Joyce Rupp

First Holy Communion Day—18th June

We're delighted to have 19 children and two adults making their first holy Communion this year. We're not quite sure yet how to get them and their families into church for the celebration. These days families usually want to go out for a meal together so the tradition of 'first Communion breakfast' has gone by the wayside. We might have a joint meal the following Sunday. What do you think?
